Below are your workshops for the spring retreat weekend. Please indicate by number your workshop choices on the front sheet. You may also use this time to explore the camp or just relax.

1. Janet Robinson, Altar Guild Chair, has selected Anglican Prayer Beads for her workshop. She will teach the meaning of the beads and participants will make a set to take home.
2. Gloria Zittrauer, DOK Chair, will provide canvas and yarn for needlepoint crosses. If time permits several may be made.
3. Dee Dugger, ECW board member, is planning an African Bible Study for her ladies. It is very important to start this session on time to complete the study. Please remember this when attending.
4. Linda Wilcox, Diocesan ECW President, will be meeting with our ECW Presidents to discuss plans for the coming year.
5. Susan McDonald, ECW President, St. Mary's, Green Cove Springs, will lead her group in painting silk scarves. You may keep your scarf or if you wish - donate to a cancer patient or one of our retreat ladies will deliver these to a cancer facility.

SPECIAL NOTES

We welcome small babies to accompany their mothers to the retreat. However, we are not able to provide child care. We request that a baby sitter accompany mother and child. It is better for the babies and the adults if the babies are in rooms other than cabins. Please have your baby stay with sitter when mother attends workshops and meals. (We hope this will help little ones stay on their schedules and Moms close by if needed). Please advise the registrar if you are bringing a little one.

And on Saturday afternoon we will have:

Siwok Ministries and St. Mark's bookstore if you wish to shop, and
the Episcopal Center will again provide life guards for those who would like to enjoy the kayaks and canoes.

SATURDAY MORNING SESSIONS WILL BEGIN AT 9:30 a.m.

I look forward to seeing you for this special weekend. Safe travels!
